WHAT BRANDS ARE SAYING...

Our team absolutely LOVES working with Angela. She has gone above and beyond every time my team has worked with her on ambassador programs and her professionalism is unmatched. Her content creation skills are incredible and she provides extensive recaps of her content inclusive of analytics, follower sentiment, and key takeaways. Our team, and our clients, are consistently impressed with her work. She is reliable, a great mentor to other creators, and is very knowledgeable about the fitness industry/influencer space. I would highly recommend working with Angela on any upcoming partnership!

-Her Campus/Underarmour Ashley

Angela is truly a pleasure to work with. She brings great ideas to the table and executes above expectations. She's also smart, hard-working, and reliable.

I would also add that Angela is very organized:)-

—Caitlin Carlson, Paceline director of content strategy

"Angela is an innovative content creator who knows her audience inside and out. Her passionate dedication shines through in everything she does, and it's always a rewarding experience to collaborate with her as we create fun and informative content for our Women's Health platforms. I would thoroughly recommend working with Angela in any capacity"
